VOLVO ECONOMY

Economy used trucks with Volvo Basic 30 Day Driveline Warranty

Whilst being a little older, or having had a little more use, a Volvo Economy used truck has been identified from our stock as being of good value. When you choose to buy a Volvo Economy used truck it will come with a safety inspection and any safety defects rectified before delivery. This means that if you are looking to purchase at this level then you have made a safe choice, and will have avoided the risks of buying 'sold as seen'. Many of these trucks have come from our own contract portfolio.

Features
